REDUCING EXPENSES IN FEDERAL COURTS.

The House Judiciary Committee is endeavoring to secure legislation to reduce expenses and reform abuses in the methods of administering justice in United States Courts. With this object in view it has been decided to propose amendments to the Sundry Civil Service bill. The amendments have been prepared by Representative Wolverton of Pennsylvania, a member of the Judiciary Committee. They prohibit United States Marshals from charging more than actual traveling expenses for prisoners and guards instead of ten cents per mile as now allowed. No fares are to be paid Marshals for executing any warrant from a United States Commissioner unless the same shall have been executed within fifty days after issue. No person who holds an office or employment under the Government shall receive compensation for discharging the duties of any other office or employment. The fees of Clerks of Courts are limited to $1,000 a year, but one person may be Clerk of the Circuit and District Courts at the same time at not exceeding $1,500 a year. Commissioners' fees are limited to $1,500 a year, and naturalization fees are fixed at $1 for filing declaration of intention and $2 for final papers. For all services where there is no arrest Commissioners' fees are limited to $1, and for hearing and binding over on a criminal charge and all services in the case, $3 and no more. The filing of informations by private informers for violations of internal revenue laws is prohibited and such information must be made by the District Attorney, Collector or Revenue Agent. Instead of allowing Marshals to subpoena and take to Court such persons as desire to make the trip, only such witnesses as the District Attorney shall direct are to be subpoenaed. Jurors are to be paid for their actual days attendance and the necessary time consumed in going to and from the Court. No bill for witnesses is to be paid until the District Attorney certifies that the witnesses were regularly subpoenaed were in attendance and were necessary. In hearings before Commissioners only two witnesses shall be subpoenaed, unless directed by the District Attorney and the fees are not to be paid until the District Attorney certifies that the witnesses were properly summoned and served and that the Court was held only for the days which they actually serve and only for days when there are actual sessions of the Court.

AN ANOMALY IN COINAGE.

The Secret Service men of the Treasury Department are endeavoring to locate a private mint at Omaha. It is believed that the mint has coined over half a million on standard dollars. These dollars contain the same quantity of silver as the genuine dollars and it is almost impossible to distinguish the difference between them and those coined at the United States mint. The profits are large, as the silver in the dollar at the present price of bullion does not cost over fifty cents.

There is a very effectual method of suppressing such mints as that supposed to be at Omaha. If the Government will open the mints for the free coinage of silver, there will be no profit in making dollars containing 412 grains of standard silver on private account. It will give employment to thousands now in enforced idleness, advance the price of all products and enable people to pay their debts. Europe does not want such dollars and will not exchange its products for them so much the better for the United States. What the people want is money that will circulate at home, not money that Europe desires to exchange goods for. Such money would do more to keep foreign products out of the country and to build up home industries, than all the protective tariff laws ever enacted; but, strange to say, those who want a protective tariff and an American industrial system, are almost unanimously opposed to an American financial system. Carnegie and his kind, who have become millionaires in a few years under the high tariff system, want money that they can purchase estates with in Europe, and the sheep owner or sheep herder on Nevada ranges, like Carnegie, is opposed to a financial system that is not satisfactory to European bond-holders.

SECRETARY MORTON of the Department of Agriculture has added two new divisions to the organization of the Weather Bureau. One of the new divisions is devoted to the subject of meteorology in its relations to agricultural soils, and the other to the study of climatic conditions, heat and moisture, under the surface of the ground and the relation of these conditions to crop production.

The amount of uncirculated bullion purchased under the act of 1893, and now in the Treasury is 140,691,853 ounces. The cost of this bullion was $126,758,280, and its coinage value about $35,000,000 more than it cost. The mints are capable of coining the whole amount in two years, but it will probably take four years to do it.

The Denver News tentatively asks: If silver is legal tender and silver dollars are good enough for the common American citizen, why not compel Eastern goldbugs to accept silver dollars or nothing?

COXEY'S ARMY.

Hundreds of Unemployed at Massillon.
Pittsburg, Pa., March 20.—The tramps are beginning to move toward Massillon. The trainmen on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad are being bothered by them and several conflicts have taken place. The officials of the road have issued orders to put every trespasser off their trains and property, and the police have been ordered to arrest them whenever possible. The object is to prevent the knights of the road from gathering at Massillon to join Coxe's army.

Several of the morning freight trains had to be brought to a standstill to enable the trainmen to force the tramps off at the point of revolvers. Train No. 3, the Chicago express, was stopped four times between Alliance and Massillon.

The tramps said they were going to start out with Coxe and wanted to get on the ground early. Extra police officers have been put on duty in the Allegheny, Alliance and Crestline yards. A big invasion of tramps is expected by Thursday.

MASSILLON, Ohio, March 20.—When General Coxe and Carl Browne arrived in this city from their camp they decided that the greatestness of the movement demanded town headquarters, and a room was obtained in a business block on Main street. The morning mail contained a goodly list, and the master and chieftain were evidently cheered by the contents.

"Here," said Browne, "is a large mass of letters from various unions relating the story that this is a movement of tramps."

Alexander Wilson of Burlington, Iowa, writes:

I have 176 men enrolled, and have applied for transportation on the railroads by way of Indianapolis. The feeling for demanding free silver from old Cleveland is growing stronger. Our rations we will expect to collect from the people en route.

A FOOLHARDY ACT.

A Lumberman Drawn in Shooting Rapids on the St. Lawrence River.

MONTREAL, March 20.—A lumberman named Dompousse made a daring attempt yesterday to shoot the Chambly rapids standing on a log, and a vast crowd saw him in the foolhardy act, which resulted in his drowning.

He came down the chute Aubouveau, a great rush of water, splendidly, but below the pier the log appeared to strike a sunken rock and the man was swept under the water. He rose along the log, which he grasped, and pulled his body partly up on it. In a few seconds both man and log were in the surging waters of the roughest part of the rapids, where they disappeared.

To the astonishment of all, however, he man appeared safely on the other side. Dompousse still grasped his log. He passed under the new iron bridge into the smooth water, where there is still a very swift current. Apparently Dompousse had now become unburied by the ice-cold water, for he was no longer able to make any effort to guide his log. He floated helplessly along into the main channel, the current taking him along to the iron bridge at the foot of the rapids.

A few minutes afterward he was seen to lose his hold on the log, throw up his arms, and with a loud shriek he sank into the waters in full view of all the spectators, and he was seen no more.

THE SEIGNIORAGE BILL.

Eastern Money Kings Want It Vetted.
BOSTON, March 20.—A document signed by over fifty of the most prominent bankers of this city has been forwarded to President Cleveland, urging the necessity of his refusing to sign the Seigniorage bill, stating that it will ruin the banking business, create distrust and in a measure ruin the financial standing of the country.

PHILADELPHIA, March 20.—The Executive Council of the Board of Trade has adopted the report of the special committee which sent to the Senate a protest against the passage of the Seigniorage bill, and a memorial to the President requesting him to veto it.

THE TARIFF BILL.

It is Reported to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In the Senate Voorhees reported the Tariff bill as amended by the Finance Committee and gave notice that it would be called up on Monday, April 2.

In response to questions, Voorhees said there would be no written report to accompany the bill, but there would be a statement when the bill was called up.

Morrill, member of the Finance Committee, said he was opposed both to the income tax and to the change from specific to ad valorem duties.

The Issue in Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 20.—The Democratic State Convention of Rhode Island met to-day at Providence to nominate a State ticket. A curious condition of affairs has existed for the past year. When the Legislature assembled last May its first duty was to meet in general session and canvass the ballots cast at the State election. It was found that there would be in this assemblage an even number of Republicans and Democrats. The House at once proceeded to change the complexion of the body by ousting two Republican members and seating two Democrats. The Senate then refused to meet with them to canvass the election returns, and, as the result, all the old officers have held over. Both parties nominated the same tickets as before.

A Denver Scandal.

DENVER, Colorado, March 20.—Denver society is discussing a scandal which is as disgraceful as the Breckinridge-Pollard case. A. L. Simms, a member of the Ninth General Assembly from Arapahoe county, for some time had been engaged to be married to the daughter of a prominent Capital Hill family, and the date of the wedding was set for Monday last. After deceiving the girl, Simms induced her to go to Pueblo on a visit, and while there he married Miss Harriet Landon of Denver. The couple is now in California enjoying their wedding tour. The betrayed girl knew nothing of the secret marriage until her return home to prepare for her own wedding. It is feared the shock she received will be serious in its results.

A Fortune in a Kettle.

WARSAW, Ind., March 20.—Joseph Stephenson, while excavating for a cellar on a lot recently purchased by him, threw out an old iron kettle containing $3,000 in greenbacks. An old man by the name of Blue formerly lived there alone and committed suicide about eight years ago.

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS.

The House Committee on the election of President and Vice-President, has agreed to report a bill providing for the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. At present this duty is performed by the Legislatures of the several States, except when vacancies occur during the recess of the Legislature, in which event the Governor of the State is authorized to appoint a Senator who holds office until the Legislature convenes.

The constitution of the United States, Article I, Section 3, provides that "the Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six years." It requires two-thirds of both Houses of Congress to submit an amendment to the Constitution to the people, and it must be ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as may be proposed by Congress, to make it effective.

There has of late years been a decided expression of public opinion in favor of electing Senators by direct vote of the people. The Legislatures of several States have adopted resolutions in favor of the change and State Conventions have also declared for it. Mitchell of Oregon, Palmer of Illinois and several other Senators have spoken in Congress in favor of the amendment and it is probable that the resolution proposed by the House Committee will receive the necessary two-thirds vote to submit the amendment to the several States for ratification.

Saved Her Life.
Mrs. C. J. Woodbridge, of Waltham, Texas, saved the life of her child by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

One of my children had Croup. The case was attended by our physician, and was supposed to be well under control. One night I was startled by the child's loud breathing, and on going to it found it struggling. It had heavily ceased to breathe, realizing that the child's alarming condition had become possible in spite of the medicines given. I reasoned that such remedies would be of no avail. Having part of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three doses, at short intervals, and anxiously waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given, the child's breathing grew easier, and in a short time, she was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The child is alive and well today, and I do not hesitate to say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved her life.

A DIALOGUE.

A Sheepherder and Bondholder Discuss the Question of Wages.

Bondholder—Well, Mr. Sheepherder, you had better quietly submit to a reduction of wages. Wool and mutton are very cheap and it is absolutely necessary that your employer should scale down expenses; twenty dollars a month now is better than thirty-five dollars a month was a year ago.

Sheepherder—That is exactly the same reason that my employer gave why my wages should be reduced. I can see why you take such an interest in my wages. You hold a mortgage on the sheep; my employer is behind with the interest, and any reduction in my wages will enable him to pay that much more on interest account. You talk about the increased value of money, now, while scaling down my wages one-half, why not scale down your mortgage in the same ratio?

Bondholder—I see you are very ignorant on finance. It is a duty which society owes the bondholders to make money as valuable as possible, and in doing so they cheapen the necessities of life to the starving multitude, and I tell you, Mr. Sheepherder, those who survive will be under everlasting obligations to the bondholders for making it possible for them to exist. Wheat at forty cents a bushel, wool at five cents a pound, and potatoes at thirty cents a sack is a great blessing to the poor and it is only through the work of the bondholders that the poor can procure food so cheap.

Sheepherder—I agree with you that the bondholders are responsible for the scaling down of prices and wages, but in doing so you have created conditions which makes it impossible for people to meet their obligations. By the creation of more than a billion dollars of paper currency and the demonetization of silver, you have forced millions of honest people into bankruptcy and thrown millions of deserving people out of employment, but you are now receiving your reward by the returns which the Sheriffs and Receivers give you in exchange for your bonds.

THE EGGLESTON MURDER.

A Woman Suspected of Committing the Deed.

The Carson Appeal says that according to news received from Bridgeport all evidence points to the fact that a woman committed the recent horrible murder of Mrs. Eggleston in Antelope Valley. The accused woman lives half a mile from the scene of the murder, and claims to have slept with Mrs. Eggleston on the night she had the "breeding dream." The woman is said to have a fiery temper, and to have made an attempt on the life of Mrs. Eggleston about a year ago. Since then, however, they made up and have been good friends.

A MAD AND MERRY PLAY.

Secure Seats for To-morrow Night.

Aye, but there is a mad and merry play and we shall see it at the Opera House to-morrow night. The attraction is "Ole Olson" and those who saw it last season need not be told of the fun that riots fast and furious through it. Aside from the fact that it has an interesting, even an absorbing story, this Scandinavian dialect comedy is full of hilarity from the rise of the curtain on the first act until it falls on the last. The management has for this season's tour one of the best companies of comedians and vocalists ever organized. The company is headed by Mr. James T. McAlpine, who plays the good natured and heroic Swede, duffy haired Dolly Foster, pretty as a picture, Miss St. George Hussey, the rollicking Irish woman, and a strong and complete cast, including Ole's big brother, "Ole Olson" direct from Stockholm, the biggest little man on earth—28 years old and 36 inches high.

It Won't Do.

You may bridle the appetite but you cannot bribe the liver to do its work well. You must be honest with it, help it along a little now and then with a dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator. The liver becomes sluggish sometimes and needs some stimulation to keep off those attacks of indigestion and biliousness. A good active liver promotes digestion and prevents Malaria.

There are 40,000 colored voters in Indiana. These are now being organized into lodges for the purpose of acting together in elections. They will demand political rights for colored people, and as they hold the balance of power can make themselves felt at the polls. The Republicans are very much dissatisfied at this manifestation of independence on the part of the colored voters, as without their assistance they would be hopelessly in a minority in the State.

The Denver News says everybody recognizes that the bottom question in the Denver trouble is, who are two men—Orr and Martin or Barnes and Mullins—are the lawful members of the Fire and Police Board? There can be no dispute about the facts upon which the decision of the Court must turn for they are all matters of record.
